Accounting Firm LTDL Sees Big

Arnau Déry-Therrien, Partner, 2019 winner of the CPA Émergence award for the Mauricie – Centre-du-Québec region

Trois-Rivières, April 8, 2019 – Trois-Rivières accounting firm Labranche Therrien Daoust Lefrançois is pleased to announce that Arnau Déry-Therrien, Partner, has won the 2019 CPA Émergence Award for the Mauricie – Centre-du-Québec region. The Émergence award highlights Arnau's accomplishments and commitment to the accounting profession locally and across Quebec.

Since joining the firm in 2010, Arnau Déry-Therrien has brought his outstanding expertise to bear for the benefit of the firm's clients. He has also been very involved in the firm's growth and development, which now has more than 100 employees and is one of the 25 largest accounting firms in Quebec.

When Arnau took up his position with the firm, he led the development of a growth plan and, with his team, coordinated the merger with another firm in Trois-Rivières, to create a new firm now known as Labranche Therrien Daoust Lefrançois (LTDL). In 2013, he helped open a new LTDL office in Montreal. The firm also expanded its field of expertise in 2015 with the acquisition of an accounting firm offering specialized services for healthcare professionals. Arnau is also an active member of the Groupe La Relève, en famille, en affaires which enables him to share his hands-on knowledge of best practices regarding the family-owned business intergeneration transfer process.

Firmly established in several regions of Quebec, LTDL firm offers accounting, tax and audit services while always taking the time to assess and respond to the specific needs of each client. Through a new company co-founded by LTDL, clients have access to a full range of consulting services that focus on boosting growth and creating value and range from financial services to growth strategies, risk management, talent acquisition and management, organizational and transfer strategies and technology integration.

Since a growing number of Quebec SMEs are developing their industrial and commercial activities in the United States, LTDL is positioned to meet their needs after integrating a US accounting and taxation firm based in California.

"We're very pleased to have Arnau on our partners' team and see his work and dedication recognized by our professional order. As a dynamic and growing professional services firm, we understand the challenges and needs of the SMEs we serve. We make every effort to meet these needs in an effective and personalized manner to contribute to the success of each of our clients. Arnau perfectly reflects the values of our organization. We're proud to put his expertise in tax and business transfer at the service of our clients," said Jean-Guy Therrien, Vice-President of LTDL.
